

Commissioned by Warner Memorial Presbyterian Church, Kensington, Maryland
in celebration of its 115th anniversary

SING of A PEOPLE

10.10.10 Refrain Tune Name: WARNER MEMORIAL

Mary Nelson Keithahn

John D. Horman

Sing of a peo- ple who stand side by side, wel-com - ing strang- ers with arms o - pen

Sing of a peo - ple who come to re-joice, prais-ing God's glo - ry with one heart and Sing of a peo - ple who all their life long, learn from the scrip - tures the sto-ries and Sing of a peo - ple who grate - ful - ly give in want and plen - ty that o - thers may Sing of a peo - ple who will - ing - ly bear bur - dens of friends fac - ing grief and de-
Sing of a peo - ple who stand side by side, wel-com-ing strang - ers with arms o - pened

8

wide, of - fering them friend-ship, their ver - y own place here at the font and the ta - ble of voice, pray - ing for par - don, for strength and for bread, bring - ing their of - ferings, that all may be song, grow - ing in faith through the life that they share, catch - ing the spi - rit of love that is live, show - ing com - pas - sion for peo - ple in need. Faith with - out works is a poor faith in - spair. sor - rows of strang - ers who long for God's grace, hold - ing them all in a car - ing em wide, of - fering them friend - ship, their ver - y own place here at the font and the ta - ble of grace. We are this peo - ple! The church is our home. Through us may Christ make the love - of God known.

16

Refrain

Refrain

fed.
there, We are this peo - ple! The church is our home. Through us may Christ make the love of God known.
deed.
brace.
grace.